

Cletho Powell

September 7, 1938 - October 15, 2014

A Time To Be Born

Cletho “Chuckie” Powell was born to Claude and Luella Powell on September 7, 1938. He was one of six children. He was predeceased by his brothers Nathaniel and John Powell.

A Time For Every Purpose

Cletho attended East End High School in South Hill, VA.

He accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Northview Baptist Church in Union Level, VA. He later became a member of Whittle Grove Baptist Church, South Hill, VA.

He retired from Capital Interior Contractors in 2002.

He was joined in holy matrimony on June 24, 1972 to Alice Loretta Jones. To this union was born a son, Christopher, on October 23, 1982. Cletho was a proud father.

He enjoyed his backyard gardening, canning & preserving, cooking and believed he made the best coconut pies. He loved gospel music.

Cletho cherished time spent with relatives and friends and walking and socializing with the fellas. Walking at Fairfield Commons was the highlight of his day.

A Time To Heal

Miss Me,But Let Me Go

Miss Me,but let me go when I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little--but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared

Miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me - but let me go.
