“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Just yesterday you were right here with us. Together we shared laughter, cry a tear and yes! even fuss. You were unbelievable, deligent, youthful and fruitful. Now! so soon, you've been taken away from us. Our dismay lingers on and on. But there is a voice that says carry on. Your memories we will always cherish in ours hearts; and just think of you as though we are apart. God sends us sadness and sorrow to help our restless souls to grow and meet tomorrow. Rest on my son it is well with our souls. Submitted by Best friend Devon McDaniel, Mom Carol, Mama, Big Cuzz, Markia, Bree and Kamira. You hold a special place in our hearts. May your Parents and Siblings find comfort.##imported-begin##Carol Hines##imported-end##

“ To my sister Sharon, Cleave, Teonna, Kadisha and Shevon My deepest and sincere sympathy goes out to you all. Words cannot take away the pain and void you are experiencing right now but God is in total control. He will give you the strength, wisdom and knowledge to understand why our beloved Cletus life on earth has ended. He was burden down on earth but now his soul is set free. His Precious Lord took his hand and now he is in another land. He is with his Father and has found Peace. We know that in each life a little rain must fall and sometime the dark clouds seems to linger on, but just remember behind every dark cloud is a silver lining and the sun will shine, it must shine again, so just hold on and be strong. Surrender All to Jesus, Love and Trust in Him and He will send the light radiant beams that will shine on you all. God knows the pain deep inside of you, just lean on Him and He will see you through. “Lift up your hands to God, and He’ll make you feel alright.” Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Praise Be To God!!! Peace and Love be with you always. Lyris and family###imported-begin###Lyris Skinner###imported-end##

“ I send my heartfelt and sincere condolences to you in your sorrow. To his mom, I really understand your pain and can sympathize, because I too lost my son when he was a young man. It's really so hard to come to terms with; that a part of you is gone, but mom, as time goes on, I promise you the pain will be a little easier to bear. What comforts me is the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Jehovah God promises that if we do his will, and exercise faith in his son, Jesus, we will see our loved ones again. John 5:28,29 tells us; "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things will go to a resurrection of life." Now that's a comforting thought that can help us all to face another day. Remember too, that God never fails to carry out his will, and his will is that the dead do come back to life in peaceful and secure conditions. This painful world we live in is fading fast, but God promises a peaceful new world for all who love him. Psalm 37:10,11 and 2nd Peter 3:13. Please contact me on my e-mail as one mother to another, and maybe we can comfort each other, and I can share with you from the bible what God has in store for us shortly. Take care of yourself, and remember the fond memories.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
