

Cleveland Lavane Brown

September 26, 1953 - September 17, 2012

MARGARET ANNABEL (MAYO) JACKSON, daughter of the late Wright and Elizabeth Mayo, was born on July 29, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on Wednesday, September 19, 2012.

Margaret was preceded in death by three brothers, Garland, Curtis and Arthur. She was educated in the North Carolina School System and employed by Baltimore County Public Schools at Pikesville Senior High School, until she retired. Margaret was a long-time member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church.

Margaret was the beloved wife of the late Frank Jackson and out of this union they had seven children. Two of those seven children preceded her in death, a son, Edward and a daughter, Jackie.

Margaret was one of the most well-known and respected babysitters in the Edmonson Village community. After retirement, she cared for generations of children within the same families. She loved what she did and it showed through the bonds created with the children she kept and their family members. These children became her children and extended family.

Margaret most enjoyed spending time with her family. If there was a family gathering or celebration, you could count on her being in attendance. She was the matriarch of the family. She was a loving wife, devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend.

She leaves to cherish her memory: four daughters, Veronica Jackson, Valerie Jackson-Born (Kenneth), Deborah Hebron (Norman) and Arlene Hall; two sons, Kenneth Jackson (Valerie) and Vernon Jackson (Renee); one brother, Andrew Mayo; special niece, Gladenia Swift; one sister-in-law; sixteen grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; two adopted daughters, Ruby and Karen; one goddaughter, Roslyn; long term friends, Carrie, Emma, Dotty, Evelyn and Margie; nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and devoted friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of Cleveland. May the comfort that only our loving heavenly Father can provide help you to cope with this sorrowful time in your life. One day soon we will all rejoice, because all sickness, violence, and death will be a thing of the past. Isaiah 65:17 promises: For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart."In that new earth God will bring about paradise conditions just like it was when Adam and Eve lived on the earth. All who love God and do his will will share in that paradise; including the dead who will be brought back to life. Jesus said: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things will have a resurrection of life. May you find much comfort and strength in God's wonderful promises.

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family. How we can find comfort in knowing our loving creator promises to reunite us with our loved ones. The Bible offers this hope to us at Isaiah 26:19
