

Clifford Raynard Cain J

January 4, 1951 - August 12, 2025

CLIFFORD R. CAIN, JR., the beloved husband of Hazel, was born January 4, 1951. He departed this world on August 12, 2025, from a lengthy illness.

He was educated and graduated from Central High School in 1969. In 1970 Clifford moved from Wicomico Church, located in Virginia, to Baltimore, Maryland where he met and married Hazelene Toney in 1973. From this union two sons were born, Derek and Aaron.

Clifford was employed by the City of Baltimore as a Building Inspector for 19 years. He worked in the school system for 10 years. He attended the Baltimore School of the Bible and became an Associate Minister at Manna Bible Baptist Church, located in Baltimore.

Pastor Cain has 22 years of ministerial experience. He served the Lord Jesus two years by singing on the choir, seven years as an Usher, eight years as a Trustee, 10 years as a Deacon, 14 years as an Associate Pastor, and 22 years as a Sunday School Teacher.

He was preceded in death by his father Clifford R. Cain Sr., sister Ernestine Mitchell, and brother H. Clinton Wildy. Clifford leaves to reflect and cherish him in memory: his wife, Hazel; two sons, Derek and Aaron; five grandkids, Malik, Kayla, Ryan, Aiyana and Jeremiah; two sisters, Arlene Bourne and Marsha Cain; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law also will remember his kindness and gifted passion for the Word of God. His nieces, nephews, and a host of extended family members and friends will long ponder his contributions to their lives.
