

Clifford L. Reed

September 14, 1959 - December 18, 2010

CLIFFORD LEBINE REED, son of the late Charles W. Reed and Sarah Reed, was born on September 14, 1959 in Baltimore City, Maryland. On Saturday morning, December 18, 2010, Clifton was called to the Lord.

Clifford attended as well as graduated from Southwestern Senior High School. He then pursued a career in the United States Armed Forces for two and a half years. After being gainfully employed, he worked at several hotel businesses, Dependable Luggage Company and finally resided permanently at the Hyatt Regency Hotel for thirteen years. Clifford will be well missed and known for his hard work and dedication.

At Dependable Luggage Company, is where he met the love of his life, Mona L. Reed. In the year 1982, December 23rd, Clifford and Mona dated for several years. Then, after falling in love he asked Mona to marry him, as of February 14th they will be married for eleven years.

Clifford was blessed with two children: Leon Faison and Crystal Faison; two granddaughters, Mya (8) and Monique (10) Faison.

Clifford Reed was a great provider for his family. He enjoyed sports such as basketball, football and was a true Raven Fan. He loved the two movies, New Jack City and Original Gangsters. He loved music from the seventies and eighties and most of all he adored his wife's cooking.

Clifford leaves to celebrate his life: his wife, Mona Reed; his children, Leon and Crystal; granddaughters, Mya and Monique; mother, Sarah Reed; three brothers, Charles, Robert and Joseph; four sisters, Peggy, Jackie, Frances and Carolyn; mother-in-law, Gean Ball; four sister-in-law, Karen, Pat, Tinsy and Robinette; daughter-in-law, Tracey Faison and soon to be son-in-law, Marten Dukes; and a host of nieces, nephews as well as close friends.
