

Clifton J. Seward

January 26, 1959 - March 23, 2002

Clifton Jerome Seward, son of the late James Seward and the late Margaret W. White, was born on January 26, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on March 23, 2002. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Patterson High School in 1974. He then attended Community College of Baltimore to continue his education. He then went into the Service and started a career in the Army. Upon completion of his tour in Korea, he returned and decided to change careers and became what he was always interested in, a chef at various restaurants. He became a member of Light Street Presbyterian Church and remained a devoted member until he passed. Clifton made numerous friends wherever he went. Everyone that knew him will sincerely miss him. He was always a true friend and a devoted brother and son. Clifton leaves to mourn: four brothers, Nathan Seward, Lawrence Seward, Vernon Seward and Kenneth Seward; two sisters, Wanda L. White and Alethia L. Brown; an adopted father, Arthur Eagle; one brother-in-law, Bernard Brown; two sisters-in-law, Sylvia Seward and Rose Williams; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ He healeth the broken hearted...Psalm 147:3 Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
