

Clifton John Mullins

August 21, 1917 - April 19, 2006

CLIFTON JOHN MULLINS, son of John and Cassie Mullins, was born on August 21, 1917 in Roanoke, Virginia. On Wednesday, April 19, 2006 he was called home to be with the Lord "Cliff," as he was called by friends and family, lost both parents at a very early age. Forced to leave school at a very early age, he was inducted into the military and received an honorable discharge on April 27, 1944. Cliff was employed and retired from the City of Baltimore after thirty-three years of service. He worked tirelessly to provide opportunities and pleasures in life for his family and took great pride in the building, maintenance and care of his home. His big love was to fish; he was the hardest fishing person, a competitive fisherman even when no one else was competing with him, he always wanted to catch the biggest and the most fish. His weakness was tools; he loved to build. He thought that he could build anything, anytime and sometimes he did. His motto was "the right tool for the right job." There was never a doubt what gift to buy him it was always... a tool. Christmas was always his favorite holiday. This was a time for him to pull out his antique trains, decorate the house and enjoy the warmth and festivities of the season. He could always be counted on to tell a good story to make you laugh. Cliff is survived by: his loving wife of fifty-five years, Zelma; four daughters, Jeanette Battle, Jean Frazier, Renee Mullins and Iantha Dean; two sons, James Mullins and Craig Mullins; two sons-in-law, James Battle and Michael Dean; two daughters-in-law, Denise Mullins and Serteria Mullins; a host of grand- and great-grandchildren, relatives and friends. Preceding Cliff in death were two children, Robert Mullins and Gina Mullins.

Tribute Wall

“ Clifton John Mullins

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I was sorry to learn of the death of Clifton. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This was also true when it was written. But not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 tells us that Almighty God will destroy our "enemy death." There is much hope for our dead loved ones returning to life without anymore death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5) Acts 24:15 declares- " ...there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on this wonderful hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so sorry that you lost your loved one, sadly death touches us all sooner or later. Although people would say he lived a long life, God meant for us to live forever. That is how he created Adam and Eve with the hope of everlasting life. Sadddly they sinned against him, which caused their death, and ultimately ours since we are their offspring. Jehovah does not blame us for their sin, that"s why he made the way out for us by sending us his precious son Jesus to pay the ransom price with his precious blood. That is why he came to the earth so that according to John 10:10 we might have life and have it in abundance." Soon all violence, sickness, and death will be gone from the earth, and all im God"s memory will be brought back to life. May these thoughts comfort you as well as your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My condolences on the loss of your loved one. May you take comfort in God's promise at Isaiah 25:8, where "he will actually swallow up death forever." At that time, the pangs of death will no longer be.##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM