“Peace Be Unto You and Praise the Lord: Today is Sunday, January 24, 2010 and I thank you all still for your words of comfort, support, strength and encouragement. I love each and everyone of you because you loved my son Clifton. You are all in my prayers. Please live your lives boldly with love, peace, joy, goodness, gentleness, kindness, patience, faithfulness and self control. You were put here to do good and to watch out for each other and forgive each other. We make mistakes and we need to be forgiven of our mistakes. You all have your whole life ahead of you. Live your life to the fullest. Tell others that you love them, often. Do acts of kindness just because. Cut someones grass, leave lunch for someone and don't let them know it was you. Send a nice greeting card to someone. Stop by a relative or friends house and have lunch or dinner with them and you bring the dinner. Go to church and worship God, pay your tithes, read your bible and pray often. Have faith in God. Give all the glory to God. It is he who have made us and not we ourselves. There will be trials, challenges, storms and clouds in your life as long as you live but with the help of God he will see you through it all if you focus on him and put your in him. I give Father God in heaven in the name of Jesus all the Glory and praise and Thanks. I know in my heart that I would have made it without him. This is my testimonial to whoever reads this that my holy lord father God held on to me and he wouldn't let go and for this I am so thankful. I invite you to my place of worship. I invite you to just come as you are and hear God's word. Let his word touch you and fill you up. My son Clifton will always be a part of me and I will carry him with me in the depths of my heart. He is my baby boy. He was in this world but not of this world. It is peace that I have at this very moment in my life. I pray your peace and comfort. Let God direct your life. Ask God what will he have you do for his will, purpose and glory, only. You are all my family and you always will be. Do more than you think you can do. Think big, reach for the stars, be a trailblazer and make a new path. Believe! Believe! Believe! Have faith in God. It is not all about material things and money but it is all about God and his perfect plan for us. Forgive yourself and Love yourself and take care of yourself always.##imported-begin##Mom-

“ Today is April 4, 2009, Thank you to everyone that left messages on Clifton's page. God is so wonderful in his deliberate work. Thank you all so much for your thoughtfulness and acts of kindness. There are so many things we all can do to make our part of the world a better and nicer place. Please remember that we can keep our loved ones alive by living their goodness in our everyday lives. It is times like this that the best in people show in a grand way. I am truly thankful for each and everyone of you. Peace, love, and forgiveness is what I charge each of you with. I am a humbled child of God. I believe on the name of his living son Jesus Christ who is seated on the right hand of God until all of his enemies be made his footstool and that final enemy being death. I can't thank you all enough for you goodness. Thank you Clifton for enriching my life. Thank you my son for all of the lives you touched. I thank God for all things in my life. All of the glory belongs to him that have made us. I believe with all of my heart that he will see us through each and every trial, storm, cloud, and challenge. "No weapon formed against us shall prosper!" Be still and know that I am God. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. If God be for us who can be against us. If you just have the faith of a grain of a mustard seed whatever you ask praying it shall be done. It is well in my soul, it is well. I pray that you be solid and strong in your faith and believe in God because it is only him that can get us through the things to come in our lives. Read God's word and obey his commandments. God's will for us all is to serve him and do his will. His will is that we love one another and believe on the name of his living son Jesus Christ who is come in the flesh. Please keep my family in constant prayer. Peace, Love, Forgiveness Always and Forever!###imported-begin###mom-mary myers###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. I hope that these scriptures will bring you much comfort and strength: Isaiah 26:19 lovingly informs us: "Thy dead live, their bodies will rise again. They that sleep in the earth will awake and shout for joy... The earth will bring those long dead to birth again."-The New English Bible First Corinthians 15:26-"As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing."-New World Translation of The Holy Scriptures May you receive much solace and strength every time you think about these wonderful promises found in the Bible:The hope of a resurrection for our dead loved ones and the destruction of death.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My Dear Sweet Babyboy, I miss you so much. My heart aches for you in an awful way. Nevertheless, By Faith all is well. Cliff to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord. That bible verse bring me comfort. Did you know you build me up and encouraged me and celebrated me so many time. I love you, my boy and I will cherish you and carry you in my heart for the rest of my life. My peacemake, you touched so many young lives. I must say that I so desperately want you back. Thank you for writing on my birthday card, From Cliff I love you Always. Thank you for telling me I was the prettiest mother in the whole world. Thank you for your hugs and kisses. Thank you for your sweet, warm radiant smile. I saw CJ yesterday and he asked for a $1.00 for daddy and mommie. He is speaking so nicely and you have taught him so much. At this moment I can't imagine life without you. My boy I do know that you are in a better place with no more struggles, challenges, upsets, trials, setbacks, and no more saddness. I will remember to do what you said and that is to act as if each of my days are my birthday. I will live your way of being a peacemaker, acting in with and through love and practice forgiveness, everyday. Missing you hurts my heart so much but I will love you forever for always. You rest now and I am glad that you are at peace now. I know that I will see you again on the other side. Your Lord's Prayer by Marvin Gaye is wonderful. You know you are my angel now. Look out for your Big little Brother. The Lors is my shepherd I shall not want. The Lord is my light and my salvation whom shall I fear. I confess that Jesus Christ is the living son of God and he is on the right side of God right now. Ok, my babyboy, I love you and I cherish you from the bottom of my heart. By Faith All is well in my soull will love you forever for always, mumma###imported-begin###mom.Mary K. Myers###imported-end###
