

Clifton R. Jackson

April 7, 1949 - December 8, 2004

Clifton Rehobeth Jackson, son of the late Mary K. Silver and the late Henry Cook, was born on April 7, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 8, 2004 after a hard, trying battle with his illness. Clifton ("Cliff") attended Baltimore City public schools before going into a vocational trade school where he became a qualified and certified brick layer. This accomplishment led Cliff to begin his career in remodeling, home improvement and home renovation in the Baltimore City area. Cliff later in life ran into a few obstacles and with the help of God, he managed to overcome them. As Cliff began to understand life more he believed in the old principles of marriage and married Janie Bobbit. As a husband he provided and accepted the better and worse of a true marriage. Cliff was a caring person who lived on the principles of helping others when in need. He loved and adored children. His son and daughter, Clifton Jr. and Chevelle, were his inspiration throughout his life. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Janie Jackson; his sons and daughters, Clifton Jr., Tyrone, Sean, Chevelle, and Annette; six grandsons; one granddaughter; four brothers, Roland (known as Fatbo), Robert, Ralph and Earl (known as Don); sister-in-law, Bertha; his loving friend, Renee and daughter, Destiny; a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family and Friends, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. At times like this comfort is needed more than ever. Please find comfort in the scriptures. Malachi 3:16 states that Almighty God has a book of remembrance. He also promises that when he opens that book those that are in it will be brought back to life (John 5:28,29) and will never die again. Please let these scriptures comfort you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
