“ In Gods Arms ...

CJ you passing so suddenly is hard for all to accept you always keep me laughing as we sit and reminisce on all the good times , I'm saddened to see you go. My beloved brother- in law you are going to missed .

If I could I would have taken all your pain away , but death comes to remind us that even the most treasured things we hold dear to heart can not stay .

As I and other loved ones hold back the tears , I was blessed to to know you , I thank you for the unconditional love through the years .

You inspired me , I hope I inspired you too .However, our will to survive lifes storms always carried us through.

*God whispered CJ .I need you more
It's ok to take a much needed rest my God makes no mistakes, he only takes the best !*

Rest in Heaven.

This poem is written in loving memory of my brother in law Cilfton L. Washington Jr . Aka CJ. I ask God to wrap his loving arms around the Washington family during this difficult time !
