“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I will miss my weekly telephone calls to my cousin. We spoke of his well-researched views on current events and politics; and his concerns that he wished he could do more for his family. I thank God for the seven years he had following a medical emergency, and how he fought the good fight to rehabilitate himself. Thank you,, Jesus for his time with us, his family and friends. I will see you in heaven, Christian, beloved son, brother, father, cousin, and friend; oral argument coach, hang out partner, gentleman, bibliophile, and my favorite Marine.

“Wish to extend my deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. But we have a High Priest who knows just what we are going thru. Hebrews 2:9 explains, when things settle down please take time to read and mediate.

“Please accept my sympathy for your loss. May all be comforted by the wonderful promise: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
