

Clinton Eugene McFadden

February 15, 1950 - February 7, 2012

Clinton Eugene McFadden, son of the late Reverend Eugene D. and Ellen McFadden was born on February 15, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. His Name was placed in the book of eternal life on February 7, 2012.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was a member of Faith of Hope Revival Holiness Church. Clinton (Clint) faithfully served his country in the United States Armed Forces. For three years, he engaged as an active combat soldier in the Vietnam War. At the end of his tenure, he received an Honorable Discharge. As he returned to civilian life he took on many ventures but found his home with Cherry Lane Electric Company. After several years of diligence and service he retired to enjoy his golden years.

Affectionately known as "Fat Man" he loved watching classic westerns. He never shied away from expressing his love to those in his life. Lovable and dependable, was the foundation of his character. If you ever needed anything he was your man to call. As a man strong in his convictions, after a wonderful day, you could often hear him say "I did it my way!"

He was preceded in death by his brother, Nathaniel McFadden.

Clint leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Carolyn McFadden; three devoted sisters, Cecelia (Andrew) Knox, Janice (Michael) Morrison and Theola Regina (Maurice) Snowden; two brothers, Jerome McFadden and William McFadden; two aunts, Essie Mae Brown of Baltimore, MD and Louvina Singletary of Lake City, SC; one uncle, Solomon (Lou) Rush of Miami, FL; nieces, nephews, his extended family the “Pages” and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
