

Clinton E. McGregor

February 25, 1964 - July 11, 2020

Clinton Edward McGregor, the son of Mary E.

McGregor and Irvin McGregor was born on February 25, 1964 and departed this life on July 11, 2020.

Clinton was raised in a family that loved and cherished one another. The love of Clinton's life was his mother whom he called "El": That morning talk, those special moments will forever be treasured in my heart. Clinton and his brother were like two peas in a pod. He called his brother "Cassius".

Clinton accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at a young age. Clinton's friends called him clever, because when they asked him a question, he wouldn't just give them any answer, he would say I'll get back to you. Clever loved making people laugh, life of the party, always listening to his favorite music. Clever loved fun-filled gatherings with his family and friends. He loved life.

Clinton graduated from Walbrook High School class of 1982. Clinton graduated from Essex Community College April 19, 1995 in a Medical Assistant program; Baltimore City Community College February 8 to March 26, 1990 for Phlebotomy Technician Training. Medix School West May 4, 2009 for Medical Billing and Coding. Out of all his studies his first love was Nursing. Clinton was one of the top male nurses in his class. Clinton touched the lives of so many people in his work, throughout his lifetime; wherever he worked or wherever he went he was always loved. He could hold a conversation with anyone and keep their interest.

Clinton leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Mary E. McGregor; father, Irvin McGregor; brother, Irvin McGregor Jr. (Cassius); sister-in-law, Sharonda McGregor; two nieces, Taylor and Brittany McGregor, the loves of his life; cousins, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends, who he loved dearly.
