“ My name is Candice Commander and i am one of Jehovah's witnesses. I am sorry for the lost of your loved one. I didnt have the pleasure of knowing Clyde but im sure he was a wonderful person. the lost of a loved one is an almost unbearable loss but you can come to terms with death. There is help in God's word the bible. Psams 34:18 states : " Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart." So Jehovah God cares when we are grieveing and he is always there to comfort us. At Revelations 21:4 it says that " and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah is promising that one day death will be done away with. John 5: 28,29 : " all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out." Jehovah God is also promising a ressurection of our loved ones. How joyous and happy the day will be when you can see Clyde again! Jehovah tells us how we can see our loved ones again in a paradise new earth at John 17:3. "This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you, the only true god, and of the one whom you sent forth Jesus Christ." i would like for you to read these scriptures with your personal copy of God's word the Bible. You can contact and of Jehovah's Witsses in your neighborhood, and they will be happy to give you a free home Bible study or to simply answer any questions you may have.

“ My deepest condolences are with you in your time of grief. May you continue to find comfort in the memories that you all shared together and get comfort from knowing one day Sickness will be no more and Death will be a thing of the past. In times of grief such as these, I find it comforting to meditate on the words found in the Holy Writings at Job 14:14, 15. Job expressed his faith that God would bring him back to life if he should fall asleep in death, "All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you." The scriptures indicate that it is possible to reunite with your loved one in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. Psalms 37:10, 11 offers us this promise. My sincere condolences to your entire family.
