

Clyde Jamal Tatum

November 11, 1989 - January 21, 2006

CLYDE JAMALL TATUM departed this life sadly on Saturday, January 21, 2006. One of God's Angels opened up the pearly gates and took "Clyde" to a better place. Clyde Jamall Tatum, beloved son of Antoinette Sims, Clyde Tatum Jr. and step-father Billie Mitchell (who stood by Clyde like he was his own) was born on November 11, 1989, to a strong, caring and loving mother who loved him dearly and never failed him no matter what was wrong. Antoinette raised Clyde to be the best young man we all came to know and love. She also raised nine other children on her own and never gave up on them no matter what. Clyde received his education through the Baltimore City Public school system. Clyde was loved by his family and he loved them. Clyde was a very funny, lovable, caring, smart person who could make you laugh when you were feeling down. Clyde was a very happy person who always would smile, even if he had one of the worst days ever, he would never let no one make him feel down. Clyde was a family man who loved his family with all his heart and would do anything for them. He had a magic smile that no one could pass by. Clyde was a mama's boy who would go to his mommy for any and everything. He loved his mother like no other. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him. Clyde leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Antoinette Sims, Father, Clyde Tatum Jr.; stepfather, Billie Mitchell, eight sisters, Tisha Sims, Sierra Mitchell, Tyisha, Taneka, Stacey, Ebony, Shanell and Gaynell Tatum; nine brothers, Jamel and Dontay Sims, Jermaine, Demetrius, Tracey and Clyde Tatum J, Lil Billie, Devontay and Darontay

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Tatum, you have my deepest condolences. Especially to the mom, I really can feel your deep pain, because I too lost my only son 9 years ago. The pain cuts so deeply. What comforts me is the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Isaiah 25:8 tells us that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it. So we will see our sons again if we are faithful and do his will That is the way to eternal life. I pray maam that you can find comfort in his promises, because they will without fail come true. Take care, and my prayers are with you.###imported-begin###R Johnaon###imported-end##

“ Dear Mom, A life so young gone. I can see you and your son was so close. The lost of a child is like a open wound of the heart, but rest assure God can give you comfort. Rev 21:4 states "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". This scripture helps us to know one day death will be gone forever. At John 5: 28-29 there is hope for a resurrection. We can put our trust in Jehovah's promise. Titus 1:2 "God can not lie". This is an encouraging hope for your Son.###imported-begin###Phyllis Duvall###imported-end##
