“ It was such a shock to hear about Boo. It sometimes seems unfair when we lose a loved one. We know, though, that God makes no mistakes and we must continue to hold onto to Him for all that we need. So in this time, I pray that He covers you in His comfort and care, to help ease the pain and provide the strength that you need to get through this difficult time. Losing Boo only brings back memories of yesteryear that were full of such wonderful memories. I pray that it's those memories that keeps a smile in your hearts and a firmer belief of just how good God has been and still is. Be blessed and keep the faith.##imported-begin##Vicki Hennigan-Palmer##imported-end##

“ A Prayer for the loss of Coleman (Boo)Chandler, Jr. Dear God, experiencing the loss of a loved one is so shattering. It is so difficult to greet each day when the loss of your son, brother, uncle and friend has left you empty and numb. Help the family fill that void with the focus of the wonderful memories shared. Allow them, to feel the comfort and gentle encouragement of your angels whispering that Boo is safe and happy with you God. Please, nourish the family with your love and give them the strength and will to carry on. Amen###imported-begin###Mary and Horace Swan###imported-end##

“ To the Family: I would like to express deep sympathy in the loss of Coleman. At a time like this comfort is sorely needed. May you take comfort in the words of Isa 25:8 and Rev 21:4 where Jehovah our creator promises to swallow up death forever and wipe our tears away.###imported-begin###T. Taylor###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences at the loss of our dear Brother Chandler. He was such a delight to be with always with a smile and lots of love for his brothes and sisters. The scriptures can help you at a time likes this. John 5:28,29 Jesus tells us that all in the memorial tombs would hear his voice and come out. Coleman knew this and he spent a lot of time telling it to others He is now in Gods memory and is awsiting a resurrection Revelation 21:3,4. ##imported-begin##ELAINE Dawson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Coleman, please accept my deepest sympathy. I didn't know Coleman personally, but I understand that he was my spiritual brother, which makes his loss a sad time for all of his spiritual family. I entertain the same hope that Coleman had, and that is to live eternally on a paradise earth where sickenss and death will be no more. Rev 21:3-5. Coleman also looked forward to this promise from Jehovah. At Isaiah 65:17 he says: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." Yes Jehovah makes these wonderful promises, because he loves us; and desires for all of his servants to live forever in true peace and security. One day, in that new world, I hope to meet my dear brother Coleman, and I pray that you his family, will be in that peaceful new world too, where you can spend all eternity with your dear Coleman. ##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
