“ I'm so sorry to read of your loss. I can't imagine the pain that you feel at this time. May the God of comfort be with you at this time and in times to come. He promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 5:28,29 and also Rev. 21:3,4.

Sophie Strachan-Moreno - September 19, 2014 at 10:51 AM

“ Dear Florence and Family,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God continue to strengthen you during your bereavement.

Love your brother,

Russell

“ To Florence and Family,

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think of how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

I am very sorry, I could not be with you but your brothers, cousins and a host of relatives and friends will travel to be with you at this time.

Your sister-in law Mary Swan

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. May the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 28,29 be a source of comfort during this time of grief and pain.

Delores Allen - September 16, 2014 at 04:31 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
