“ I wish to extend my deep condolences to the family at this difficult time. May the God of all comfort be with you to strengthen and comfort you. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, and no family should have to go through such grief. One day all sickness and death will be erased from the earth, because God has made this wonderful promise; a promise we can put faith in. The bible says that it is impossible for God to lie. Heb6:18, and his word never fails. Isaiah 55:10,11. He promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25,8. The bible man Job asked, "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? He goes on to say, "You will call, and I myself shall answer you. "For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes Job knew that God yearns to see his loyal servants alive again, and that is why by means of the resurrection many in the grave will open their eyes again. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort in his wonderful promises, and may your cherished memories of Colenea help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I express my deepest sympathy in your circle of life being broken very recently. All of mankind have felt the pain of death at one time or another, and share your feeling. Imagine the happiness that will result when the dead are resurrected, Job 14:14,15 in the near future. Tear of joy will be all over our faces. As time pass , may strenght of comfort from your heavenly father support you all in all things as 1 Cor 1:3 say. Refuge is there as Ps.46:1-2 say. I hope these words will be uplifting and postive as all the many accomplishments of Ms. Colenea sustain and support you all in life roads ahead on the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
