

Colleen V. Brooks

November 1, 1928 - June 9, 2005

Colleen V. Brooks, daughter of the late Laura Byrd and Frank Lightner was born on November 1, 1928 in Baltimore, Md. The Lord called his angel home on June 9, 2005 after several heart complications. Because her roots were planted on Division Street, which was her place of birth by a mid-wife, Colleen spent the majority of her life at 2211 Etting Street with the late Bertie Brooks, Priscilla Brooks, and Loretta Cutchember. She received her education from Douglas High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After school she became an employee at Rice's Bakery and later worked at Social Security, where she worked for fourteen (14) years and later retired in 1997. Colleen loved to have fun and travel with her club. She explored many wonderful and memorable places. Her favorites were Canada, Las Vegas, and to places out of the country. She loved to bargain shop and use her many coupons when she went out with family and friends. Her family and friends will always remember her for the knowledge she shared. Colleen was very family oriented and could spend hours with you talking about whatever you wanted to know. There was never a dull moment when you sat and conversated with her. Although she never had any biological children of her own, she was very close to Michael Cutchember who was like a son. (He was the second son of her beloved cousin, the late Loretta Cutchember who departed this life in January). During earlier years, you could find Colleen in the kitchen creating all kinds of wonderful treats. Her favorites were Cherry Tarts and Black Walnut Cookies. She leaves to mourn, the Brooks family, the Cutchember family and a host of other friends and relatives. She will truly be missed.
