

Columbus Claude Barnes

September 23, 1959 - May 2, 2004

Columbus Claude Barnes began his life on September 23, 1959 in Bennettsville, South Carolina, as the son of Lillian and Arthur Barnes, Jr., the youngest of their seven children. Known to family and friends as "C.C.," he was fun, comedic, charismatic and quick-witted. Columbus departed this life on May 2, 2004 after a lengthy battle of his health. C. C. enjoyed life in his own special way, entertaining loved ones, making friends and family laugh and smile and taking life one day at a time. C.C. moved to Baltimore as an infant. When he was thirteen he moved back to South Carolina, where he attended and graduated from Wallace High School in 1977. In 1980, he joined the United States Navy, where he became a member of the 21 Fighting Tom Cats. After serving many years as a sailor, he was honorably discharged from the Navy on November 3, 1987 and he moved back to Baltimore. C.C. wore many hats; son, husband, father, brother, cousin, uncle and friend. He loved spending time with his family, listening to music, watching movies, going fishing, telling jokes and stories to make others laugh. He was helpful, caring, loving and colorful person, whose sparkling warm spirit will surely be missed. C.C. leaves to mourn: his loving wife of 12 years, Nancy Booker-Barnes; his son, Eric L. Thompson, and his daughter, Eleise N. Booker; his mother, Lillian Barnes-Ellison, three brothers, James Barnes, Michael Strong and Willie J. Greene; eleven sisters, Eleise Booker, Doris Fleming, Gladys Harris, Lillie Barnes, Ernestine Barnes, Mona Lisa McDonald, Margaret Strong, Shawn Manning, Lipper Strong, Nora Kelly and Hazel Littles. He also leaves behind: parents-in-law. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends are left to miss and love C.C.

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much consolation from the Bible. Psalms 94:19 says- "When my disquieting thoughts became many inside of me, Your own consolations began to fondle my soul." So according to this scripture our Creator is there for us even when others don't understand what we are going through. I hope this loving promise from God's Word gives you solace and strength to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##sophia briscoe##imported-end##

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
