

Comer Wilson Jr.

December 10, 1963 - July 4, 2024

Comer Wilson, Jr. was born to the late Comer Wilson, Sr. and Doris Virginia Wilson on December 10, 1963 in Richmond, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his great nephew, Elijah Williamson, his best friend, Timothy Lee and many other family members.

Comer was a 1983 graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School (JHW). While attending high school Comer played football where he was an all metro quarterback, this resulted in multiple scholarship offers from Division 1 ACC Colleges. Comer however, decided to serve his country by joining the US Navy. He enjoyed the opportunity to see the world during his service, including time spent in Italy and California which he spoke of fondly. After returning home he had a successful career as a painter. Always willing to help others and pitch in, he could often be found using his skills as a handyman or personal paint expert for family and close friends.

His captivating smile and energetic personality illuminated any space he entered. Comer devoted his life to family and friends, whom he deeply loved. He enjoyed painting, traveling, dancing, singing, and spending quality time with those in his circle. Comer was also was an Avid Dallas Cowboy fan. He was always the life of the party and for that he will be remembered fondly. Though in recent years he endured some health challenges, Comer always maintained a positive outlook on life.

Comer leaves a legacy of family and friends, amongst them are, his daughter, Shonte' Taylor; grandson Devin Taylor; aunt, Mary Kendrick; uncle, Alphonso Jenkins; brothers Daryl Wilson, Derrick Wilson (Michele), Carroll Wilson(Angela) and Alphonso Wilson; sisters, Paula Wilson and Cassandra Penn(David Sr.). He also leaves a host of nieces and nephews, among them his devoted niece Domonique Wilson(William Johnson III); and a host of cousins and friends.
