

Constance Bowen

November 14, 1928 - November 22, 2005

CONSTANCE BERNICE MILBURN BOWEN, daughter of the late Violet and William Milburn, was born November 14, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 22, 2005 at Harbor Hospital. Connie, as friends and family affectionately called her, received her education in the public schools of Baltimore including Booker T. Washington and Douglass High School. She was united in marriage to Meldenardo Bowen on June 4, 1948. From this union, three beautiful children were born; Brenda, Lance and Robin. Mel and Connie made their home in Pumphrey, Maryland. Connie volunteered at Pumphrey Elementary School for many years, where she sold savings stamps to students in return for savings bonds. She instilled in the students and her own children the importance of saving. Connie was a people person and loved to cook. The Milburn family's fried crabs were her specialty. She also loved to travel. Disney World was one of her favorite destinations, where she visited often with her family. She enjoyed working outdoors and was known for her green thumb; however, her favorite hobby was going to Flea Markets and Yard Sales. Connie embarked upon various entrepreneurial endeavors. Most notable was opening her own boutique "The Lucky Penny". This particular venture brought her great pride and satisfaction. Constance (Connie) leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband of 57 years, Meldenardo Bowen. She also leaves her son, Lance Bowen Sr.; two daughters, Brenda Carter and Robin Bowen; five grandchildren, Jerome Carter Jr., Tracie Carter, Lance Bowen Jr., Kelli Smith and Lindsay Bowen; great-grandchild Christopher Bowen; son-in-law, Jerome Carter Sr.; sister, Eunice Tyler; sister-in-law, Juanita Thomas; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I wish to express my condolences on the loss of Ms. Bowen. I would like to leave a scripture for your comfort. Isaiah 25:8 says in part, "he will actually swallow up death forever." The days of death's reign on mankind are numbered. What a wonderful hope for the future.###imported-begin###Debbie Spann###imported-end###

“ My condolences to the family and friends. Daniel 12:2 assures us- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May this loving promise from the Bible give you much comfort in the days ahead.”

“ I wish to send my deepest sympathy to the Bowen family. The comforting hope that we get from the scriptures helps us to deal with the loss of a loved one. Death was not apart of God's original arrangement. Revelation 21:3,4 reassures us that one day soon by means of God's Kingdom we will not see death anymore.”
