

Constance Elaine Carr-Flanagan

December 4, 1931 - April 17, 2015

Constance Elaine Carr Flanagan quietly departed this life to be with the Lord on Friday, April 17, 2015. Born in Somerset County on December 4, 1931, she was the daughter of the late Leon Henry Carr, Sr. and Theresa Marguerite Roberts Carr. she was the second child of six siblings.

She was educated in the public schools of Somerset County and graduated from Greenwood High School. She received her formal education at Morgan State College. After she graduated from Morgan State College in 1956, she was employed by the Defense Investigative Service where she worked as an Investigative Specialist and was later promoted to a supervisory role. She worked in this position for 30 years until she retired on January 22, 1987.

At an early age, she accepted Christ and was baptized at Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Princess Anne, Maryland. After leaving Metropolitan, she became a member of Emmanuel C.C. Church where she served as Deaconess. She later joined Providence Baptist Church on May 25, 2008, where she was a current member.

On December 30, 1972, Constance was united in Holy Matrimony to Girard Toast Flanagan. Constance and Girard spent many happy years together until his passing on December 9, 2006.

Constance will be terribly missed by everyone who shared their life with her. She was a high spirited, independent person who cherished life. She was always there to lend a helping hand whenever anyone needed it. Her warm spirit and loving memories will live in each and everyone who knew her.

She is survived by: two sisters, Mary Fields (Robert) of Allen, Maryland and Jane Lake (Edward) of Princess Anne, MD; two sisters-in-law, Ila Booker of Richmond, Virginia and Ann Brown Carr of Westover, Maryland; one grandson, Jerry Gregg Scarborough (Cassandra) of Richmond, Virginia; one great-granddaughter, Ayanna Scarborough of Richmond, Virginia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, special friends and neighbors. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Girard Flanagan; two sisters, Sedonia Plummer and Lois Jones; and brother, Leon Carr, Jr.
