“ Many months have passed since your loved one died, but I know she is not forgotten. It's so heartbreaking when a family member dies, because our family circle has been broken and life is never the same. Our loving heavenly father never desired this legacy of pain for us, and one day soon he promises us that he will end all sickness and death, and wipe out every tear from our eyes. Rev 21:4. He desires nothing but peace and happiness for us, and through his son Jesus Christ he has promised to resurrect the dead. John 5: 28,29 promises that one day "All those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." May your family find much comfort in Jehovah's promises, because they will without fail come true. Isaiah 55:11##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Dorsey. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##G. Winston##imported-end##
