“ Connie has touched so many lives in her travel. I found a poem that is so fitting for the family "I'm Free" Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God had for me; I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all; I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play, task left undone, must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunrise of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch; Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief; Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He has set me free!##imported-begin##Lisa Francis##imported-end##

“ Connie, how we will miss you...sharing bible truths...the field ministry....chatting after the meetings. Oh come quickly Father Jehovah...to bring back those we love and miss. I gain comfort in the saying.....FOR EVERYTHING THAT FADES...SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL REMAINS....and remaining for us the memory of your presence...your kindness..you gentle way of dealing with all those you encountered. So rest my friend until Jehovah awakens you and I will see you on the other side.##imported-begin##June R. Terry##imported-end##
