“ I am very sorry to learn of the death of your family member, Constance. I am sure that this was a very difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death###imported-begin##Senita Swann###imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family. I hope that you can find comfort from the Bible, especially at Revelation 21:4. God comforts us by saying, "He will wipe out every tear from their eye, and death will be no more." God goes on to make even more glorious promises, adding, "Neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain will be anymore. The former things have passed away". Our God, Jehovah, will also resurrect our loved ones who have already passed (Acts 24:15). May you be comforted.###imported-begin##Kendra Adams###imported-end##
