

Constance Smith

February 1, 1954 - May 19, 2012

Constance L. Smith (Connie), daughter of the late Edward and Rose Smith, was born on February 1, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on May 19, 2012 after a magnificent fight of battling breast cancer.

She received her education at Forest Park High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Upon completion of her education, Connie became a Press Operator and Assistant Manager for a number of Printing Companies, beginning in 1977 until 1996.

In 1979, Connie met and fell in love with Junius L. Bradley, who became her love and companion for thirty-three years. He always held a special place in her heart. Although they had no children together, Junius played an important role in the lives of Tamika Owens and Reginald McCray.

Connie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Connie touched everyone who came across her path and in her life. She was a true, loving friend.

Connie enjoyed spending most of her time with her family (especially her grandchildren) shopping, taking trips with friends and watching movies. She was always on the go!

She leaves to mourn: one son, Reginald McCray; one daughter, Tamika Owens; one son-in-law, Christopher Owens; two sisters, Catherine Pearson and Vanessa Smith; four brothers, Edward Smith, Glenn Smith, Phillip Smith and David Smith; seven grandchildren, Sachet Stockton, Derrick Bland Jr., Rachaud McCray, Jabril Hall, Sh'nya McCray, Dezmond Owens and Kayla Owens; longtime companion, Junius Bradley; gone, but not forgotten: one sister, Anita Colfield; one brother, Arthur Smith; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends whom she loved dearly

“Smiffy” my BFF, Buddy, Road Dogette was like a sister to me and we traveled a lot of miles together, 45+ years is a long time and I thank God everyday for the time you were in my life. We had great times together as well as sad ones and you were there through it all. We were always there for each other which was such a blessing. You were a part of my family as I am of yours. Even though we told each other this often, I want to say “Thank you for everything”. She was full of life and always on the go. A #1 MOM, all about family-her children & grandchildren were her life and she was always there for them. She was a joy to be around, her bright smile and warm & caring ways. I have a lot of memories and will think of her often. There will always be a void there but I know you are in God's loving arms and keeping an eye on us as you always did. No more pain and suffering, rest my dear friend-until we meet again.

Love Always,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ May the family of Connie Smith find comfort in their loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) Our loving Creator has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy.

“ No one would have known looking in that you were not a blood relative because you always were with us and supporting us like family does and my love for you is as such, a sister. Mom and Dad thought of you as another daughter of theirs and loved you too. My heart is heavy because my sister is now gone, but I thank GOD for putting you in my life. I thank you for the laughter, the fun, the support and most of all the LOVE you have brought my life. You always had my back and kept it straight just like a sister should, which I appreciated. I will miss you with us during the holidays, when we were getting together just because and after I moved to NC, when I would visit, how you would come and hang out with us every day and see us off when we were leaving. Those are just a few memories and I am glad we have such good ones because that is what will continue to get me through. I will miss you Connie, with all my heart, but I rest knowing that your suffering is no more!!! I LOVE YOU ALWAYS!!!!

“ To Catherine Pearson and the Children of Connie Smith:

My heartfelt condolences to you all. Connie was a very sweet lady with a beautiful smile that I shall always remember. I never saw her unless she was smiling and greeting me warmly. Although your hearts are extremely heavy now, take comfort in knowing that she is out of her pain and resting in the arms of the Almighty. "Weeping endures for a night, but JOY comes in the morning. God will sustain and take care of you all. God bless you all.

“ Connie, my dear friend, whom I called my sister, had a warm, happy, caring and fun spirit. She loved life and brought life to her family and friends. I will honor her memory by doing the same. My heart is heavy with grief for such an exceptional life gone way too soon. I will sorely miss her. Love always,

“ Ms. Connie was a real class act to life. Her beautiful smile was warmth to our hearts. She made you feel welcome and it was a joy to be in her presence. We thank God for placing Ms. Connie in our lives. She was a woman of God. She shared what she had with others. She truly took time to listen to what you had to say. Ms. Connie reminded us that we should take the opportunity to relax with family and friends. Thank you Ms. Connie. We will never, ever forget you. Love and Prayers to the family.
