

Constance Ruth Thompson

December 10, 1939 - January 19, 2013

CONSTANCE RUTH THOMPSON was born, educated and lived her entire life raising four children in Baltimore, Maryland. Born on December 10, 1939 to William and Ruby Banks, she was raised on the East side of Baltimore City with her two younger siblings and a host of first cousins. Constance died quietly in her sleep on January 19, 2013.

Constance enjoyed reading. She spent much of her time reading novels, newspapers, magazines, and anything she could get her hands on. She was well versed on the issues of the day locally, nationally, and around the world and had a strong opinion on most issues. Constance enjoyed writing poetry, tending to her flowers, and buying gifts for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She sent cards to her close family and friends on every occasion and took great care in ensuring that cards arrived on or before the occasion. She would often send "thinking of you" cards between holidays and birthdays. Her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Constance was preceded in death by her oldest son Vincent.

She is survived by her three remaining children: Drusilla, David and Vernita; one stepdaughter, Zelda; five grandchildren, Leaura, Britney, William, Kandan and Kahlan; eight great-grandchildren, Detric, Desmond, Breonna, LaBria,

Madison, Morgan, Ditanyen and Summer; two younger siblings, Evelyn and William; two nephews, Kirk and Kelvin; and a host of cousins whom she adored.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
