

Constance M. Washington

July 28, 1933 - January 2, 2017

Constance Marguerite Washington was born July 28, 1933 in Baltimore, MD, to the late Mary Lucretia and William E. Carter, Sr. The eldest of six children.

After a very lengthy illness, Constance quietly and peacefully made a victorious and triumphant entrance into the presence of God on January 2, 2017.

She grew up on Etting Street in West Baltimore and received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

On May 6, 1950 Constance married Raymond A. Washington and from this union they had seven children. They were married for 57 years.

Constance worked as a Baltimore City School Crossing Guard for 17 years, and was also employed by Westinghouse for several years. She was active in the Forest Park Neighborhood Association and served as Corresponding Secretary and President.

She attended Wayland Baptist Church and later City Temple of Baltimore, both under the leadership of the late Reverend William Payne. She accepted the Lord, Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and reaffirmed her commitment April 13, 2013.

She enjoyed collecting dolls, flea markets, traveling and live theater in Baltimore and New York. Both Raymond and Connie enjoyed cooking and hosting the best backyard cookouts for family and friends.

Her loving husband Raymond A. Washington, brothers Donald Carter and Oliver Sockum, grandson Xavier, son-in-law Vernon H. Mason, and dear friend Edna Pulley, precedes her death.

She was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great grandmother who leaves to cherish her memory: children, Lucretia Annette, Linda, Carolyn, Raymond, Jr, Rodney (Valerie), Stephanie, and Constance; grandchildren, Dana, Brandon, Christopher (April), Jillian, Krystle, Rodney, Jr., Brian, Sharnelle, and Joseph; great-grandchildren, Ciara, Diamond, Morgan, Tristan, and Madison; sisters, Gloria Martin and Joyce T. Davis; brother, William E. Carter Jr.; sister-in-law, Veronica Carter, Brenda Washington, and Juanita Jackson; cousin, Arnold Douglas; aunt, Lilian Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins. and dear friends.
