“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends of C.M. Johnson: It is with deep sorry to read about the death of your loved one. I too have recently felt the sting of losing a family member in death. But there is reason to ponder about the time when the Almighty God, Jehovah, will put in action His miraculous power to bring back the dead. Jesus' love moved him to bring back one of his most loving and loyal friend, Lazarus(John 11th chapter). This valid hope from God's word is true. May you and yours find comfort and accept my sincerest condolences.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life.
