

Cora Ann Powell

October 18, 1918 - November 5, 2002

Cora Ann Powell better known to all of us as MaMa, was born on October 18, 1918 to the late Cecilia Hazel and George Pope. She departed her life on Tuesday, November 5, 2002 after a brief illness. She received her education in Edgemere, Md. In the public school system. Cora was a beloved mother and loved taking care of her family. Cora gave her life to Christ and became a life long member of Pleasant Zion Baptist Church until Christ called her home. Cora was a very loving and giving person. She loved helping people that was her specialty. Ma Ma would open her doors to anyone who needed a home. She was always willing to lend a helping hand without complaining. She will be sincerely missed by every that knew her. She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Amanda Pope, three sons, Samuel Berman, Herman Butler, and Thomas Royster, one sister, Lillie Mae Hazel, one brother, James Hazel, a special nephew, Robert Hazel also known as Poppie, and one niece, Cecelia Brock. She also had two granddaughters that took care of her during her brief illness, Lady and Althea, one goddaughter, Karen, three daughters-in-law, Frances Berman, Theresa Royster, and Rosalind Butler, one brother-in-law, Cliff Brown, twelve grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, eight great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
