

Cora Denise Brown

August 14, 1960 - April 11, 2008

Cora Denise Brown, daughter of Carrie Brown and the late Coy Brown Sr. was born on August 14, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Friday, April 11, 2008 after a lengthy illness to suffer no more and claim her just reward, eternal freedom. She received her formal education at Eastern Senior High School. After many life struggles, Cora proclaimed that “freedom is not free” and worked diligently to restore positive relations with her family. She lived a productive life with God at the helm, directing her path. Affectionately known as “Moosie” by most, she was kind, enjoyed dressing, watching movies and spending time with her children. She often asked “and how are you doing” when greeting those she loved. Moosie’s greatest joy in life was her three children, Sharnett, Ciara and Jerome. Her legacy to her children include, living and enjoying life without restraint or restriction. Until her demise, Moosie was exposed to the essence of pure unconditional regard, comfort, compassion and support particularly from those who loved her best. Although her earthly presence is no more, the memory of Moosie will linger in the hearts and minds of many far beyond this day. Her physical departure opens heavens gates as she now lives free from sickness and binds with her father Coy Sr., sister Peach, niece Vernetta, nephew Sherman Jr. and her last love Jerome Sr. forever move. To cherish her memories, she leaves her mother, Carrie Brown, three children, Sharnett, Ciara and Jerome; six sisters, Carrie, Venetta, Geneal, Aleatrice, Rochelle and Lita; two brothers, Sherman Sr. and Coy Jr.; brother in law, Tyrone White, sister-in-law, Rita Arnett, six aunts, Lena, Hattie, Mary, Alice, Isabel and Helen, one uncle, Ernest, nieces, nephews, two special friends, Sheila and Renee and host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Ms. Brown, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37;11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At I time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter verses 8 and 9. It states: "He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: 'Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.'" What a time to look forward to! May God's word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family of Cora. Especially to the children of Cora I pray that you all continue to trust in our loving God Jehovah, and know that he has wonderful things in store for those who have died. Remember they no longer suffer but are sleeping in God's memory, and one day they will live again by means of a resurrection which God has promised in his word, the bible. According to Daniel 12,2 it says; "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Also at Isaiah 25:8 Jehovah promises that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Remember too, this wonderful promises from the son of God, Christ Jesus. At John 11:25 he says, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." May the hope of the resurrection comfort you and help you to cope in the days to come.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
