

Coraline Nolan

May 12, 1926 - September 3, 2002

Coraline M. Nolan, daughter of the late Mary Jones and Jerome Henry, was born May 12, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 3, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. She was employed as a Domestic Worker for 35 years. On March 3, 1945 she married Joseph Nolan. She was the stepmother of the late Joseph C. Nolan and Bernadine Lee. She attended St. Francis Xavier Church faithful. Coraline was a very loving aunt, stepmother, step grandmother and step mother-in-law. She loved to raise children and she raised many. She always had a loving smile and wonderful words for everyone that she came contact with. She was always talking about the wonderful master. Coraline lived her life to the fullest, never missing a birthday or holiday. Coraline's mission in life was that no child should go without. By making everyday a special day for any and every child. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Joseph, one daughter-in-law, Helen Nolan, one step-daughter, Bernadine and son-in-law, Bunk; one sister, Dorothy Delaware, one brother, James W. Jones, her precious eight grandchildren, a host of great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. A special thanks to Mrs. Deborah Jones for being a wonderful care giver and sister-in-law. She was preceded in death by one brother, Herman Jones, and two sisters, Greta Brewton and Bernadine Dean.

Tribute Wall

“ Coraline Nolan

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM