

Cordelia Mazzie Coles

July 7, 1933 - May 31, 2013

Cordelia Mazzie Coles was born on July 7, 1933 to the late Frederick and Ruby Morsell in Owings, Maryland. Cordelia was educated in the Calvert County public school system.

Cordelia accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age. She faithfully attended worship services at Gethsemane Baptist Church in Calvert County until her husband's illness would no longer able him to take the drive from Baltimore, Maryland every week. She always found a way to worship the Lord whether attending services with other family members, friends, and neighbors or her daily talks with God while fellowshiping in her home.

She graduated from Brooks Senior High School in 1951 and traveled to Baltimore to take care of family and shortly thereafter she began employment with Jordan's Cleaners located on Baker Street.

She married Charles W. Coles in August 1969. After a few married years Charles convinced her to leave her job and live her life providing nurturing and love in their home. Cordelia's life was truly spent in ministering love to her family, friends, and neighbors. She was the safe harbor and beacon of light for many facing life's challenges and trials. She provided home care for mothers in need of care for their children, a meal to those who were hungry, and wisdom to all to listen of her experience daily walking with the Lord.

Cordelia entered eternal rest on Friday, May 31, 2013 from the Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. She leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory, three sisters, Marilyn Jones, Belva Hawkins, and Ida Morsell; three brothers, Quentin, Kenneth, and Sherman Morsell, her loving niece, Ardenia Nash (James). Her dearest relatives and friends Gloria Taylor, Avon Jackson, Willa Dean Jenkins, George Coleman, Charita Brown, Eddie Eckels, Muriel Rice, and her adopted children, Tony, Allen, "Cookie", Chelsea, along with a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ The Bible tells us at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This is a promise that God has made to His people; trust him to fulfill this promise, meanwhile, please accept my sincerest condolences.
