

Coreen Wallace Charity

May 1, 1917 - April 12, 2009

Mrs. Coreen Wallace Charity, of Charles City, Virginia answered the Master's call on Sunday, April 12, 2009. She was eighth of eleven children born to the union of the late Josiah B. Wallace and Ethel B. Wallace of Charles City. She was married to the late Robert A. Charity, Sr. on October 21, 1937. She attended public schools in Charles City County and graduated from Ruthville High School in 1937, where she was President of the Student Council and played basketball. She joined Little Elam Baptist Church at an early age. She was the organist and member of the choir and devoted member.

Subsequently she moved her membership to Gilfield Baptist Church with her husband and children. She retired from the City of Richmond Public School System after 20 years service. She enjoyed crafts and was well known for her delicious home made cakes and rolls...Let's not forget the SOUSE. She is survived by four devoted sons, Robert A. Charity, Jr. (Barbara), H. Hugo and Barry W. Charity all of Charles City, Melvin R. (Squeaky) Charity of Richmond, and a devoted daughter Barbara C. Crawley (John Jr.) of Charles City, 14 grandchildren, two devoted Chee and Tammy; 12 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Elizabeth McBride; one sister-in-law, Marjorie Charity; one brother-in-law Calvin Charity (Betty); host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ Uncle Bobby, Mama, Uncle Squeaky, Uncle Hugo & Uncle Barry...We are so sorry for the loss of your Mother & our grandmother. She was indeed one of a kind. Someone you could talk to 4 hours and laugh the whole time. We will continue to have fond memories that will brighten our darkest day and just remember GOD came to get his newest EASTER BUNNY. She is pain free and resting with pop pa. We LOVE you all##imported-begin##Tammy & AC##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Aunt Coreen is, and always will be, a very special person. She taught me the heart is like a storage place, a repository...a museum...a place where we store feelings and artifacts for safekeeping. She said be careful of what you store in your heart like hurt, deception, and betrayal. These things should be removed to make way for love, joy and peace. Thank you Mama Co for teaching me how to love life. Love, Gayle###imported-begin##Gayle Jones Carter###imported-end##

“ Angels with wings took you away Tears of pain fell for you that day, but the smile that lifted upon my face, was the one of faith hoping you'll be safe. God whispered into my ear, "never should you fear, I shall keep Mama Co safe, inside my golden gates ". I cried then I sighed, this pain inside I truly hate. Hoping you'd come back to us. I'll see you someday, Love, Your JJ##imported-begin##Jay##imported-end##
