“ To The Fenner Family, I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches us about a future time when those in the memorial tombs will come out (John5:28-29). Continue to rely on the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly informs us that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. (New World Translation) Also, Acts 24:15 reveals that "there is going to be a resurrection". (New World Translation) May you receive much comfort and strength from this Bible-based message.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your loved one in death. May you find much comfort and strength in the hope of the resurrection. Isaiah 66:13 gives us these comforting words: "Like a man whom his mother keeps comforting, so shall I keep comforting you people." Jehovah God loves us more than we'll ever know, and he has wonderful blessings in store for those who love and serve him. If we trust in him he promises that we will see our loved ones again. Noone else has the power to bring our loved ones back to life, with the exception of the Almighty, all powerful loving heavenly father Jehovah. As Psalm 68:20 says, "Our God is for us a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah belong the ways out from death." Because his beloved son Jesus gave his life for the whole world of mankind, Jehovah has given him all authority and power to ressurect the dead. John 5:25-29 lets us know that one day the dead will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. May you find much comfort in this wonderful promise, as well as in your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
