

Corey Garl Stepe

December 28, 1980 - July 6, 2003

Corey Earl Stepe, son of Rhonda Farley and Earl Stepe Sr., was born on December 29, 1980 and departed this life on July 6, 2003. Corey received his education in Baltimore Maryland. He attended Westport Elementary School, and was placed on the honor roll for maintaining a high grade average. He graduated from Deer Park Middle School and Carver Vocational Tech High where he received his diploma. After completing his education, Corey entered adulthood and the work force. He was hired as a telecommunicator for MCI, he also worked at Metro Food Market as a cashier. Indeed, Corey was a loving, caring, charismatic person. He had a heart of gold and a smile that would melt your heart. Corey was a family man and loved his family unconditionally, his family loved him the same. He made numerous friends wherever he went. Corey was a devoted father and brother who had many talents. Such as drawing and rapping. Corey loved to dress well and as he would say he loved to "be fresh." Corey will be lovingly remembered by: his mother, Rhonda Farley; his father, Earl Stepe; his stepmother, Regina Stepe; his grandparents, Anna Parham, Edward Farley; his three children, a daughter, Talea Stepe, a son, Corey E. Stepe Jr., and an unborn child, two sisters, Diana Stepe and Blessing Stepe; his four brothers, Artemis Carr, Kaheem Carr, Earl Stepe Jr., and Sean Montford; one stepbrother, Chauncey Adams. He also leaves the mother of his children and devoted friend Tiffany Norris as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.
