

Corey Ronald Harris

September 3, 1984 - June 29, 2023

On the 3rd of September 1984, is the day that we can all remember, it is the day Corey Ronald Harris embraced the world with his presence. Corey was the spitting image of his dad, his height, smile, demeanor and drive was an exact replica of him. He loved to laugh and drop a jewel or two at any given moment. Growing up, Corey was the quiet type you know shy, bashful and a joy to be around. Hence his Instagram name "Quiet as a Mouse." Which in the end made him the soft gentle giant that we have all grown to love.

We all know that Corey can be stubborn as a mule with an attitude that just won't quit, that's when the beast comes out. "Yeahhh Beast" Did you know he was a rapper as well? Yes, he and his cousin made their own version of club songs, but it was short lived. So, he changed paths to become one heck of a basketball player, which landed him on Northwestern Senior High Basketball Team where he graduated. Corey was employed as a Chef and a Carpenter. He was a sheep of High Rock Baptist Church.

Corey was such a standup guy whenever you saw him, he always had a pleasant glowing smile on his face with those fat chubby cheeks. Corey has touched the hearts, souls and minds of those he has encountered. If you needed him, he was there and never hesitated to give his last. Corey was an honest and genuine man with the strength of an OX.

Corey was a proud father to his sons, Corey Jr. and Marquis, "That's my boys" he would always say. Corey was very supportive of his nieces, nephews and the neighborhood kids.

Corey shared an amazing bond with his beloved Sherry. The two could always be seen together sharing a laugh or her dealing with his stubbornness. Corey ensured that he provided all that he could for Sherry and she did the same for him.

Corey will be always be loved and in the hearts of his mother, brother, sister, Sherry, their sons, grandfather, great-aunt and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family from his Beloved, his Oakmont family and friends.
