

Corey Dewon Price

February 14, 1974 - April 27, 2025

It is with heartfelt admiration and gratitude for a life well-lived, that we announce the passing of Corey D. Price, who departed this life on Sunday, April 27, 2025, at the age of 51 in Richmond, VA.

Corey was born on February 14, 1974, in Elizabeth, New Jersey, to Wanda Price-Hagood and Mathew Brown Jr. He was preceded in death by his parents, Wanda Price-Hagood and Dennis Hagood; his grandparents, Helen and Mathew Brown Sr., Jola Brown-Roy; and William and Hallie Beatrice Price. And his beloved aunt, Ellen Hall.

Corey attended Douglas Freeman High School, where he later graduated in 1994.

Corey was a man of quiet strength, boundless generosity and unwavering devotion. His life was a testament to faith, integrity, love and a shining example of fatherhood. Through every challenge and joyful moment, he stood as a pillar of support; offering wisdom, comfort and unconditional love.

He gave selflessly, led humbly and loved fiercely. His hands built a home and a foundation of values that will continue to guide us. His smile warmed our hearts, his stories enriched our lives, and his presence was a gift we will always cherish.

Corey leaves behind a legacy that lives on. He is survived by his devoted fiancée, April Briggs of Richmond, VA; his loving daughters, Alecia J. Price and Desiree R. Price; and his extended children: Dominique Vincent Jr., Alysia Vincent, Dasani Morton, and Jaiden Derricott, all of Richmond, VA.

His grandchildren include Aniyah Price, Aiden Thompson, Au'Breana Gibbon and Lamont Jackson III.

His cherished siblings: Tamisha Lee Griffin (Hatchel) of Rahway, NJ; Tikesha Harris of Greenville, SC; and Tamirah Smith of Avenel, NJ. His extended siblings include Adrian Williams (East Orange, NJ), Leslie Williams (Las Vegas, NV), Tyler Williams (Magnolia, DE), Dennis Williams Jr. (East Orange, NJ), Rosalie Sims (Wilmington, DE), Paulette Williams (Atlanta, GA), and Allen Williams (Greenwood, DE).

Corey shared an unbreakable bond with his dear aunts, Wilnett Scott (Powhatan, VA) and Celestine Woodson (Midlothian, VA), and his uncles, Isaac Tucker (Joyce) and Kenny Brown (Charlotte) of Elizabeth, NJ.

In addition to his immediate family, Corey leaves behind a chosen family of close friends and companions—especially Corey McMurray, Mark Thomas, Chris Dickson and Eric Hatch—who stood by him through every season of his life.

“ Corey, wow this just seem like a bad dream. I'm thankful for the fun times that we had and for giving me two beautiful daughters. We loss touch at one time and I always prayed that one day we would see each other again and we did at the Publix where you were working. Lol we both thought we saw a ghost, but were happy to see each other. You got to reunite with your daughters and I'm thankful and very grateful that they got to know who you were. God has a way of bringing people together. I got to meet your new family and my other kids became friends with your family and they went to school with each other. My twins call Jayden their brother. I have always prayed for you and I always asked God hands to be on you. I know that he honored my prayers. My heart is hurting to know that you have gone on to be with the Lord, but I know that one day we will all see each other again. To my daughters Alecia and Desiree and to April and her beautiful kids my prayers are with you and know Corey wouldn't want any of us sad. He would say live your life, do good and make him proud. You will be missed. I leave these two scriptures with you :

John 14:27:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." This verse offers a promise of inner peace and comfort.

Revelation 21:4:

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." This verse promises a future where sorrow and pain will be no more.

Love ya,

“ Dear God,

*My heart is heavy with sorrow,
and the pain of this loss feels too great for April to bear.
I come to You broken, searching for peace in the midst of grief.
Please wrap Your comforting arms around my cousin as I know too the pain she is enduring.
Give her the strength to face each day,
the courage to keep going when everything feels so empty.
Help her hold on to the love and memories that never fade,
and remind her that You are near, even when she feel alone.
Bring healing to her heart and rest to her soul.
Let Your grace carry me through this valley.
In Your name, I pray—Amen.*

Also to the family and friends of his. My condolences. - Sainteea “Man... I met you back in '92, first day of high school. You were the first person to walk up and introduce yourself to me—and from that moment on, it was like we'd already known each other forever.

We were young, wild, and fearless—doin' all types of dumb stuff we had no business doin', but man, we had the time of our lives. You weren't just my boy... you was my partner in crime. And straight up? Ain't nobody ever came close to that bond. Still undefeated.

*Thank you for keeping my secrets when it mattered most.
Thank you for coming to church when I asked.
Thank you for always respecting my mom, even when she was lecturing us—because she knew exactly what we were getting into.
Thank you for believing in me, for seeing something different in me, and for pushing me toward it—even when I didn't believe in myself.*

And man... thank you for last year. After 15 years apart, we finally linked back up. We caught up, laughed, and reminisced outside the statute of limitations—no fear, no shame, just two grown men remembering what we survived, this time with our wives right there, hearing the stories and seeing the bond for themselves. That night was healing. That night was ours.

*You were solid. One of the realest to ever do it.
Losing you hits hard—but loving you as my brother, that part lives on forever.*

Rest easy. I'll carry our story with me always. I love you Corey.
