

Corey Winston Wyatt

May 6, 1977 - November 7, 2005

COREY WINSTON WYATT was born May 6, 1977 to Dorothy Rosetta Savage and William Winston Wyatt in Baltimore, Maryland. Corey was educated in Baltimore County Schools and became an excellent barber and drummer. He had many customers including ministers, police officers and correctional officers. At the time of his death Corey worked at Celebrity King Cutz as well as Blue Hippo Funding. Corey received Christ as his personal savior in 1989, under the leadership of Reverend Evora Robinson Burns, whom he came to love and call Grandma. He later joined Victory Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Tony Smith. Corey loved playing drums. He traveled with James Cleveland G. M.W. C. of Baltimore, the late Reverend Donald Vailes of Washington, D.C. and the Maryland Suburban Mass Choir. He also played at various churches such as Jones Tabernacle, Mount Olive Freewill and Macedonia Baptist Church in Ellicott City. At the time of his death Corey played at Mount Calvary Holiness where the Reverend Shaw is Pastor. On February 2, 2003, Corey married his teenage sweetheart, Toni Lawson. From that union a beautiful daughter was born. He also helped raise her daughter. Corey leaves to cherish his memories: a devoted wife, Toni Wyatt; four daughters, Kiresten Wyatt, who preceded his death, Brianna Matkins, Naya Wyatt, Khoriana Wyatt; one stepdaughter, Dorshera Queen; his mother, Dorothy Savage; father, William Wyatt; brother, Floyd Pryor; four sisters, Denise Hooker, Dawn Hawkins, Andrea Brown and Sydney Wyatt; two grandmother, Florence Scott and Clemmie Wyatt; one uncle, Reverend

Robert Savage; a devoted god-mother, Ms. Barbara Cox, who helped raise him;; three aunts, Barbara Savage, Delveria Savage and Brenda Zieglar; two god-brothers, Mark and Bryant; his mother-in-law, Isabella Kane; fathers-in-law, Larry Kane Sr. and Ruben Lawson; grandmother-in-law, Henrietta Archer; seven sisters-in-law, five brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. Corey had one special childhood friend Darnell Wright.

“ I would like to extend my deepest heart felt feelings to the family. I found out about Corey's tragic ending. I look at this picture and it reminds me about when I first saw him being a young boy with a lot of anger and resentment. However, God has grace and mercy on all His people. It may have been a reason as to why his life was taken so tragically. Rest on Corey and continue to praise God. No more heart break with your family and no more disappointments. You have no more worries. My prayers are with the wife, mother, grandmother and sisters, and brothers. You are very well missed by all. You have earned your crown in heaven and being with the Lord. I praise God that you have accepted Christ as your personal savior and now you can rest in peace. Peace my brother!###imported-begin###A GOOD FRIEND###imported-end###

“ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Corey Winston Wyatt. I did not know him personally, yet I have experienced the lost of a loved one. In addition, I feel led to invite the survivors of Corey to my home church: Set the Captives Free. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry (2nd/4th Mondays @7p) called Life after Loss. It has helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. May God Bless you!###imported-begin###Angie###imported-end##

“ We wish to express our deepest condolences to the family of Mr. Wyatt. Death is surely something that was not originally planned by Almighty God. Please know that God's promise to remove all that causes us to mourn and grieve is recorded at Rev. 21:3, 4. May you take comfort in the Holy Bible during this most difficult time.###imported-begin###Mrs. Lewis###imported-end##

“ Corey is truly a person we all love. I send my condolences to family and friends. Along with condolence, I'd like to share a Bible scripture that helps me when someone I love is lost in death. John 5:28,29 tells us "those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Thus, our dead loved ones will come to life again! May you be comforted by this scripture and by Jehovah God.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Dottie, I am very sad to hear about your lost of your son. I remember him when we sang on the Gospel Music Workshop with Rev. Robinson. I thought about you a couple weeks ago, but did not know how to get in touch with you. My prayer is that the Lord will grant the strength you will need in the days and months ahead. I know how much you loved your son, but as you know the Lord will be all that you allow Him to be, and He will fill that emptiness. Continue to trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your path. If you keep your mind on Him He will keep you in perfect peace. Yours in Christian Love and Friendship Rev. Beverley Simpson##imported-begin##Rev. Beverley Simpson##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family, friends & colleagues of Mr. Wyatt. 1 Corinthians 15:55 asks: "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?" Verse 57 answers, "Thanks to God, for he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!" The time will come when death will suffer defeat at the hands of Jesus Christ. Truly a victory we can all look forward to celebrating real soon!##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##

“ When God needs another angel, He searches for the best. It's then and only then that our loved one's laid to rest. Although for us it is painful, difficult to understand; It's one more test of strength, written in the Master's plan. Corey, no longer physically present, with you shall spiritually be . . . By your side, in your heart and wrapped in your memories.  Bill, May your faith in God uplift you and the support of family, friends and loved ones hold you fast in your hour of sorrow. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
