

Corinthia Wagstaff

August 14, 1949 - February 12, 2016

Corinthia Mae Wagstaff, daughter of the late Delores and Jerry Carver was born on August 14, 1949, in Baltimore, Maryland

Corinthia B.K.A. “China-girl” or “China” attended the Baltimore City Public School System.

China had two sons, Eric and Mark Wagstaff who preceded her in death and a grandson, Devin Wagstaff who also preceded her in death.

China experienced LIFE and all its trials and tribulations at an early age, but her faith in GOD and her determination gave her the will power she needed to not give up on herself or give up on GOD. She knew that GOD was always with her even in her darkest times. She knew that GOD’s grace and mercy was keeping her and helped her to be an overcomer. China was always ready and willing to give GOD thanks.

China loved watching TV and movies—(to sit down with her you would know the movie in the first 20 minutes). She enjoyed knitting, crocheting and walking.

China was a no nonsense person who had little patience for foolishness. She was a very unselfish and giving person, who shared whatever she had.

In the late nineties she was reacquainted with a longtime friend, Clyde Turner, who became the love of her life and best friend. Clyde was always at her side even until her death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: the love of her life, Clyde Turner; a brother, Lawrence Wagstaff; two grandchildren, Mark and Dominique Wagstaff; two aunts, Mary Massenburg and Bernice Jones; three uncles, Lloyd and Clifton Wagstaff and Milton Jones; six close cousins, LaVerne, Felecia, Charles, Tammy Massenburg, Chantele Fitzgerald and Joel Franklin; and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.
