

Corlett Demetra Harris

April 27, 1969 - November 24, 2013

Corlett Demetra Harris departed this life unexpectedly on November 24, 2013. She was born in Richmond, Virginia on April 27, 1969. She was born in Richmond, Virginia on April 27, 1969, to Tyrone and Cora Harris. She was baptized into the body of Christ at an early age. Her childhood was a good one, shared with her brother, Bear, and spent with family and friends, especially her cousin Cricket, who she loved to dress up.

Corlett graduated from Armstrong High School, where she was an active member of the Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA). After high school, she worked several jobs before finding her passion in the retail industry. She had been an employee of the CHKD Thrift stores for several years. As a result of her dedication and hard work, she was promoted to manager and given her own store.

Corlett's other passion was her family, especially her three children. She loved each of them dearly and supported them always. No matter how busy life became she never missed an opportunity to tell them, "I love you and keep your head up." Corlett's compassion was not limited to her family and close friends. Over her lifetime, she reached out to help many that were less fortunate. On countless occasions, she literally gave away the clothes on her back. Her generosity, compassion and presence will be greatly missed.

She was preceded in death by her father, Tyrone Harris.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, daughter, Shaniqua Harris; two sons, Tyvonne and Tamar Harris; mother, Cora Harris; brother, Delvin "Bear" Harris; grandmother, Ollie M. James; devoted friend, Melissa Persons and a host of family and friends

“ To the Harris family, I was so sorry to hear about the loss of Corlett. May you find solace in John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 that talks about a future time when there will be no more sickness or death and when our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death will be resurrected to perfect life on a paradise earth. With deepest sympathy.

“ My deepest condolences to you and your family. I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one. Please take comfort in God - His work tells us at Revelation 21:4 - and He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. There are more encouraging Scriptures found at www.jw.org. Again, my sincerest condolences.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing."
