So many stories and memories from VA to NY. You became family CJ. Treated me like family and treated my family like family. You were one of the coolest, funniest most down go earth people I had the opportunity to get to know and I'm glad I was able to experience you as more then a friend but as family. You will definitely be missed good brother.

“ Rest In Peace Corlin “CJ” Johnson.

I didn't have the pleasure of meeting you while you were still here, I wish I would've had that opportunity. From the moment the tragic accident happened I felt as if God was telling me to follow up. I found your name in the paper and knew I had to go to your service. The celebration of your life was so beautiful! There I was surrounded by family & friends who spoke so highly of you. I had the pleasure of meeting your gentle, caring mother, your strong, calm father, your loving sisters, and your adoring fiancé Tiffany. By the end of the day I felt as if I got the chance to really meet you through all of your family and friends. You were such a kind, loving, caring & wonderful person. Please watch over your family as they grieve & cope with your loss.

To Tiffany & the Johnson family;

We thank you for allowing us to be present, we are always praying for you, and always here if you need us.

God Bless

“ I can recall many summers with you Corlin ,Ebony and I ,from walks to the corner store and us bothering chew -chew (Aunty Mae dog) cause he couldn't leave the kitchen area.
I remember the anticipation while riding from CT to VA. Nate and I waiting to pull up so we could hear you yell "Ya going to the fair?, We going to the fair!" or your favorite "we going to the buffet!" I can see the excitement in your eyes each and every visit more and more joy and loved poured from you. As you aged you started to become more and more of a sneaker head then anything, every chance you got you would love to show off your newest kicks. Corlin no matter what ,you always got those newest and most expensive man toys, but your heart never changed you always remained humble and loved your family. No matter how many miles we were apart when we connected again it was like we never left each others side, and those memories I will cherish for the rest of my life.

“ Wow Corlin "CJ"....I never called you that because I met you as Corlin, when we were teenagers, but who would've known that you never forgot about me. I remember all the times we stayed on the phone as teens, calling one another after school, and later kicking it with friends...we lost contact as we got older, but then I received a random message that you were looking for me...well I'm so glad that you found me again...my memories I have made since we linked back up will never be forgotten. The kind words you would tell me to encourage me to keep pushing forward in life, watching you work so hard, the care you had for children, the talks you had with my son about his football tips and how he could achieve so much out of life if he put his mind to it... He will never forget you and neither will I. I'll miss the many texts from you, the calls, and spending time with you...My heart will always share a special place for you my friend, may God watch over your family, friends, and so many others you inspired and encouraged along the way. You will truly be missed.... (Last Text Message: CJ:"I miss you", Me: "miss you too"....Forever my friend, ride on “ God, as we mourn the loss of my Lil Cuz, Corlin, we ask that you cover the family with your wings of love. Give us the courage so we can stand and share fond memories we have of Corlin. Father, it has been a such a big blow to us, but you are our strength and strong tower. We know that you love us so much and that you will take care of our needs. Lord, fill the gap that has been left in our heart, and give us courage to face another day without him. In Jesus name, we pray, Amen. Love you cuz!

“ I would hear from Cj at least once a day. He would listen to my life's growing pains. He would always give good advice. The time that we spent together although brief was special. I can remember when he would send random text messages telling me he missed me or just wanted me to know he was thinking of me. When I was hurt he eased my sorrow. When I was angry he tried his best to fix it. On the days when I felt ugly, he would duo me, just see my face and tell me I was beautiful. Now I am left with only fond memories of my friend Cj and will forever be grateful that I got to share time and space with this wonderful man. I know how much he loved my dog Bella and he couldn't wait to hold her, only now he can meet my old 4-legged friend Dooney instead. I take comfort in knowing that he is not alone, and now can run and play with man's best friend. Until the time comes for me to say goodbye I will try to live life like Cj would have filled with adventure, lots of laughs, love and happiness.

*Love always and forever,
Your friend Sabrea Hebb*
