

Cornel Anwan Lemon

July 23, 1982 - January 9, 2006

CORNEL ANWAN LEMON a.k.a. "Big Boo" or "Whizzy," son of Cornelius R. Brooks and Sandra E. Lemon, was born on July 23, 1982 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 9, 2006. He received his education at Southwestern High School in Baltimore and upon completion, he then pursued higher learning at Catonsville Community College. Cornel interrupted his studies and committed to serving in his brother Dewayne's employment, Interstate Janitorial Company where he chose to remain. Cornel's spiritual foundation reconnected him once again to the God, history, culture, language, land and the last name of the people of the Old Testament Bible. Cornel became a son of "The Most High God." The events that led to his physical demise, all who witnessed attest to the fact that he was "a true soldier, in the army of the Lord." Cornel made many, many faithful, loving and sincere extended family members, though brief his short stay with us. Those who came to know him surely miss him, for he was a most trusting and caring human being. Cornel leaves to mourn: his mother, Sandra; brothers, Dewayne, Jamal, Khamin and extended brothers, C.J., D.J., James, Hartman, Nitty, Odie, Roddy, Tony, Lonnie, just to name a few among many; two sisters, Carin and Corneꝑ; sister-in-law, Likweli; nephews, Bryant, Rasheed, Tyrone; nieces, Marrah, Yasmeen and Brittany; father, Cornelius R. Brooks; grandmothers, Ruffie M. Lemon and Elizabeth Brooks; family friend, Aubrey; aunts, Hazel, Lisa and Munchie; uncles, Popcorn, Will, Lige, Slink, Long, Simon and Lee-Lee; a vast host of cousins, and other relatives too numerous to name.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ So very sorry you had to experience the pain of losing your loved one. Death is something we can never come to grips with no matter how many people we lose, because we want our loved ones here with us forever. God knows the terrible grief we experience, that is why he sent his precious son Jesus to take away this enemy death, and by means of his precious blood open the way for us to receive everlasting life. Very soon, according to the bible, all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. John 5:28,29. Jehovah cares so much for us. He feels our pain, so Rev 21:3,4 says that one day he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. May his holy spirit comfort you and give you the strength to go on until that glorious day of the resurrection arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this the scriptures has brought me and many others comfort. I'm sure you will find this to be true. When reading Daniel 12:2, Almighty God promises to "wake up" our dear loved ones so that we can have the hope of seeing them again. May you too gain strength from these comforting words.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
