“ I always remember how she loved bingo. I truly believe that if you could ask her beside her husband children and family what was the closest thing that she loved she would say bingo. You have lived a full and wonderful life now you rest and enjoy that precious gift of eternal life along side Uncle William I know that he is very happy to be with you again.

“ I will never forget the first time I met Mrs. Johnson. She had a comforting smile on her face and wanted to know everything about me. Whenever, I was at her home and I had a few extra minutes; I would poke my head into her room to say, “Hello”. Mrs. Johnson would ask me to come in, sit-down and we would have wonderful conversations. She would tell me stories about her life and family. Sometimes, she randomly gave out advice about life. I will miss you and our conversations. You will always be in my heart and memories.

Rest in eternal peace.

Love,
Chandra
