

Cornelia Phair

April 30, 1910 - July 18, 2008

CORNELIA PHAIR, the daughter of the late Dalton McCleod and Bessie Spain, was born on April 30, 1910 in Durham, North Carolina. Cornelia departed this life on July 18, 2008 at Good Samaritan Hospital. She had been in declining health for the past year. Cornelia was married to Raymond Phair, Sr., and of this union was born Raymond Phair Jr., Clifton Phair (Barbara), Joseph Phair, Betty Burnette (Tony), Shirley L. Withers; preceding Cornelia in death was Ernestine Drake, Mary Catherine Trammer, Clarence McLeod and Patricia Smith. Cornelia worked for over thirty years at the Y.M.C.A. faithfully. She received her education in Raleigh, N.C. Cornelia was a member of Mount Lebanon Baptist Church. Cornelia was a quiet-acting and soft-speaking lady. She was well loved by her large family and friends. Cornelia, who we all affectionately called Mama whether it was a family member or her caregivers, always had an extra plate or an extra room for family or someone in need. She would take that extra mile for us all, but don't turn her television. Cornelia loved God, and she loved for her daughter Betty to sit and sing "The Hallelujah Song" for hours to her. It gave her comfort. Cornelia leaves to cherish her memory: sons, Raymond Phair Jr. (Joyce), Clifton Phair (Barbara), Joseph Phair and daughter Betty Burnette (Tony); grandchildren, Janice Wilson, Mozetta Smith (Philip), Trina Stuart, Antonette Phair, Lydia Phair, Monica Phair, Bonnie Phair, Clifton Phair Jr., Clayton Phair, Landie Phair, Troy Phair, Michael Neal (Raven), Donte Faison, Tier Faison and Sheliah Burnette; sisters-in-law, Margaret Hair, Blanche Robinson, Beulah Montgomery; and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends, more than paper will allow space.
