

Cornelius Dean

June 7, 1923 - April 10, 2004

Cornelius Dean, son of the late Cornelius and Mattie Dean was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 9, 1923. He departed after a lengthy illness on April 10, 2004. He was known, as Barney to friends and family members, and was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools system. Early in life, he met and married Mary Ellen and from this union four children were born. He was a very loving and devoted father and husband with a special adoration towards children. Acquaintances spoke of him as a kind and generous person. Many adopted him as a “father figure” in their life addressing him as “Pop” or “Grandpop.” Barney served in the U.S. Army, and was a member of the Harlem Park Community Baptist Church. He was employed with the Dept. of Sanitation and after 40 + years of service he retired. Family, friends and neighbors were often drawn to his presence by his “knack” for telling a story. He was truly loved throughout his life and demonstrated that same love towards others. For recreation he enjoyed music, played guitars, spent time hunting, fishing and working on automobiles. Although quite humorous at times, he shared serious moments of personal experiences with those who would listen. He demonstrated interest in the welfare of others. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mary Ellen; his children, Steven Dean, Vanessa Jennings and Martina Hawkins; his sisters, Edna Ward, Lucille Madry and Miriam Winder; his grandchildren and great grandchildren, his sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My family would like to offer our sympathy at your loss. Unfortunately we all have felt the pangs of death at one time or the other. However when faced with this great sorrow we have been able to find comfort in the promise found at John 5:28,29. Please take a few minutes and read that when you have a chance.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
