Look & Listen

Take heed to his message, Even though we might not understand

Let's start by praying everyday as much as we can

All things happen for one reason or another

I pray for mom and pop and others

Although there are some things we might not understand

If there's peace and unity he'll keep us in his hands

Old folks, young folks we must all take a look

Turn loose the things of this world and let's start dwelling in his book

In looking to him (God) we will come to understand

That only he can tell us of his true demands

Randolph White, Jr.

“ Dear Family,
Sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Please know that God's Word the Bible states: “As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) Never again will grief-stricken people have to go to a cemetery to bury a loved one. The Bible says: “Death will be no more.” (Revelation 21:4) Please find comfort and hope in Gods word the Bible. He truly cares for you.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
