

Cornell Levoice Stamper

October 23, 1987 - June 22, 2007

CORNELL LEVOICE STAMPER, son of La'Shone J. Stamper and Cornell Eldridge Jr., was born October 23, 1987 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed this life on June 22, 2007. Cornell was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Forest Park High School. Upon graduation, he attended Lincoln Technical Institute and successfully completed the Information Technology program. At the time of passing, he was pursuing an A.A. degree in Business Management at Baltimore City Community College and was gainfully employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital in the Medical Records Department. He enjoyed playing basketball, football, video games, shooting pool and spending time with family and friends. Since acquiring a car, he enjoyed traveling. It was his desire to drive to as many states as possible. Cornell was a go-getter and was very motivated. From the time he started his first job at Konstant's Hotdog stand in Lexington Market, he had worked non-stop. He was always seeking ways to better himself and to earn money to help his mother and younger sisters. "Nelly", as he was often called by his family and friends, was a compassionate, kind and easygoing young man. He never gave his parents and family any trouble. You could count on him to be responsible and to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. To have known Cornell was to love him. For, he was truly a fine young man who was certainly loved and admired by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish and hold dear to their memories: his parents, La'Shone Stamper; father, Cornell Eldridge, Jr.; two sisters, Chanel and Ja'Nel Stamper; four brothers, Vaughn Stamper, Cornell III, Kyron, and Caron Eldridge; grandparents, Madeline Carroll and Levoice Stamper and Janet and Cornell Eldridge Sr.; great-grandmother, Leerinder H. Carroll; two uncles, Bryant

Eldridge and Elvin Strand; nine great-aunts, Alverta Miller, Linda Pittman, Bertha C. Prince, Lisa Carroll, Ella Stamper, Hazel Lemon, Jeanetta Jackson, Leatha Stamper and Dorothy Foster; very special cousins, Dez, Li'Shel and D'mirian Carroll; devoted and loving intended fiancée', Michel Tucker; godparents, Linda Hamlett and Michelle Herbert; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Cornell, I can't believe this craziness. You were one of my best friends and your death is a shock to me, still. I almost called you the other day. I'm upset that I didn't even know about your funeral and you died a week after my birthday. I kept wondering what was wrong with your phone because we talked all the time. I miss you so much and I hope that Jesus wraps you in His arms to love on you. I'm sad because my home skillet biscuit is gone and you never got to attend church with your church girl homegirl. I do miss you and God, I know, will continue to reign His love down on you, your family, and friends. I can't believe I'll never see you again and we won't be hanging out on each other's birthday, since I'll be 21 before you. It makes me cry. I had to find out about your death through someone who didn't know you the way I did and that hurt. Everyone will be in my prayers. When I drive over West, I think about you. I never thought you and I would be as close as we are in such short time. I did a birthday tribute to you by lighting a candle on a piece of cake and sung "Happy Birthday". I love you and I will see you soon. P.S. The afterlife is better anyway...##imported-begin##Shanae D. Wilson/Shay Shay##imported-end##

“ Dear family, Pleas accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Death is so hard to deal with, especially when someone is so young as your Cornell was. It is so unfair that our loved ones have to depart from us. At such times we can turn to our loving heavenly father for comfort. Jehovah God and his son, jesus Christ understand the terrible loss we feel, and one day Jehovah promises, death will be gone forever from this earth. Rev.21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. "Neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. One day Cornell will come to life again, and he will be able to live life to the full in peace and security that will prevail in God's paradise. Acts 24,15 promises us that there will be a ressurection. May you find comfort in Jehovah's promises, and may your cherished memories of Cornell help you to cope.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard His call I turned my back and left it all . I could not stay another day To laugh, to love,to work or play Task left undone must stay that way I found that place at the close of day .If my parting has left a void Then fill it with remembered joy A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah yes, these things ,I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow , I wish you the sunshine of tommorrow.My life's been full I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch . Perhaps my time seem all to brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me God wanted me now , He set me free!###imported-begin###Denise Tucker/Michel Tucker###imported-end###

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Hi Debbie, Sorry to hear about your grandson. Please let your daughter know that my prayers are with her and your entire family. Lean on the Lord in your time of sorrow and remember this: He may not come when you call him, but he's always right on time. May God bless you and your family.###imported-begin###Big Debbie###imported-end##

“ i met cornell my first day on the job here at hopkins(he was flirting)and once i told him that i had somebody, he gave me such ginuwine respect.We became buddies and i would always see him outside going to move his car.I often talked to cornell and he seemed to be such a well rounded young man for his age. He worked so hard to stay above the waters of this cruel world and from what i knew of him all he wanted was success. I just want to send my condolenses to his family and i will continue to mention him in my prayers but i already know that god has him. sincerely Alaina Wells Medcial Records Corrospondance.
