

Corona E. McMillon

November 25, 1936 - September 5, 2009

Corona Elizabeth McMillon was born to the late Isaiah and Gladys Turner on November 25, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Saturday, September 5, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Corona attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar Sr. High School. She later went on to marry John B. McMillon Sr. Out of this union, one child was born, John B. McMillon Jr. She was employed at The University of Maryland Hospital until she retired. She was baptized in Jesus' name at the First Apostolic Faith Church where Bishop W.A. Showell served as pastor. She was known for her love of dance, travel and being outspoken. To have known her is to have loved her. She had a great sense of humor and was full of life and wisdom. One could not just stop by for a moment because before you knew it you would be laughing and enjoying yourself to a point you could not leave. Everyone truly enjoyed her homemade cakes and pies. She will truly be missed by all. She leaves to cherish her memory her son, John, daughter-in-law Chandra; two grandchildren, Donte and Tavon; five great-grandchildren, Ke'Sean, Da'Quan, Caron, Dominic and Malik (great-granddaughter Taia preceded her in death) two sisters, Ruzella Foreman and Delores Campbell; brother, Walter Turner, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Christ Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
